

THE BEST BOOKS AND COURSES FOR TEACHERS IN THE NATIONAL ENGLISH PROGRAM (PRONI)!

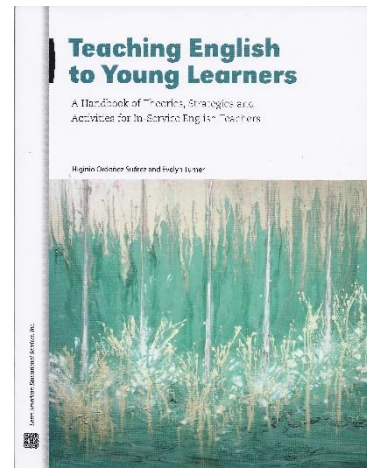

Teaching English to Young Learners: A Handbook of Theories, Strategies and Activities for In-Service English Teachers

by Mtro. Higinio Ordoñez Suárez and Evelyn Turner

This is one of the best and most up-to-date publications available and offers new tools for the pre-school and primary-level PRONI teacher. Written by Mtro. Higinio Ordoñez, a recognized expert in Mexico in English language education in young children in the context of the official Mexican curriculum, this excellent resource covers all the important theories on which the PRONI curriculum was based, and then applies these to the approach, method and strategies that the PRONI teacher is expected to do.

Topics include:

- Project-based instruction approach
- The Cooperative learning approach
- Total Physical Response (TPR)
- Routine signals
- Visual scaffolding
- Strategies for realia
- Teaching reading
- Teaching phonics
- Games and techniques in English Language Teaching
- Assessment

In addition to the book we also offer a live one-day course, to occur in your capital or in multiple cities of the state. The syllabus of this course/workshop corresponds to the book and provides coverage of modern and recommended teaching techniques and best practices in language teaching in the context of Mexico.

Mtro. Higinio Ordonez was State English Coordinator for the State of Mexico since 2009 and before that was Director of the Normal de Atacomulco until his retirement from the SEP in January of 2015. Evelyn Turner was a US Department of State English Language Fellow in Mexico and taught ESL in Rochester, Minnesota for 27 years.
